

OIF: Observation Index File

The observation index file, usually named `oif.fits`, contains a summary of the data products associated with an observation. It is equivalent to a structured directory listing with descriptive information about the observation. The file is created by the tool `mkoif` and is used by `firstlook`.

The Chandra X-Ray Center (CXC) is operated for NASA by the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory.
60 Garden Street, Cambridge, MA 02138 USA.
Smithsonian Institution, Copyright © 1998-2008. All rights reserved.

URL:
<http://cxc.harvard.edu/ciao3.4/dictionary/oif.html>
Last modified: 15 December 2008

Dictionary Entry - CIAO 3.4