This workshop is made possible by a generous donation from the Heising-Simons Foundation and from contributions by the Center for Astrophysics.
The Chandra X-Ray Center is operated for NASA by the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory.

THANK YOU!

This workshop was made possible by the efforts of many people.

Never forget: large projects are always a combined effort!

- It all began with two successful proposals by myself and the Chandra Science Data System team:
 - CFA Conference & Workshop Funding
 - Heising-Simons Foundation Open Call for Science Events & Gatherings
- This required strong support from CFA and UMass Lowell leadership and administration: Elaine W., Randall S., Sherman W., Silas L., Mike T.
- Then came the immense logistical support:
 - At CFA: Mike T., Kara T., Cathryn M., Giancarlo R., Tamara A., Ethel D., Lynne N.
 - At UMass Lowell: Paige S., Patrick F., Graham A.
- And finally, a huge thank you to the Chandra SDS team and other members of the CXC who will be presenting and helping during the hands-on session (you will meet them all during the week!)

SOME LOGISTICS

- The website for this workshop is cxc.harvard.edu/ciao/workshop/may25/
- Quick way to get there...
cxc.harvard.edu [the main CXC website] —> Data analysis (top right)
[the main CIAO website] —> Workshops (bottom of left menu)
- What you will find here:
 - the schedule with links to all the presentations
 - a workbook with some basic exercises to complement the talks
- Questions/Help: During sessions: Please ask!
