

Why do my fit results from Sherpa and XSPEC differ by so much?

Most likely you have not subtracted the background from your dataset. XSPEC does this automatically, but Sherpa requires that you do this using the `subtract` command:

```
sherpa> data example.fits fits sherpa> back example_bkg.fits fits sherpa> subtract
```

The Chandra X-Ray Center (CXC) is operated for NASA by the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory.

60 Garden Street, Cambridge, MA 02138 USA.

Smithsonian Institution, Copyright © 1998–2006. All rights reserved.

URL:

http://cxc.harvard.edu/sherpa3.4/faq/xspec_fits.html

Last modified: 21 September 2006

